Media Report Gibson Dunn Bolsters GP Stakes and Asset Management M&A Capabilities With Arrival of Christopher Scavone

In the Media | August 3, 2026

The arrival of Investment Funds partner Christopher Scavone in Gibson Dunn's New York office drew coverage from leading business and legal publications, with reports focusing on the firm's expansion and his experience in GP stakes and asset management M&A.

The Drawdown reported that Gibson Dunn "expanded its investment funds practice" with Christopher's appointment, noting his focus on "GP stakes and asset management M&A transactions" and placing his arrival in the context of the firm's broader investment funds growth.

Westlaw Today also covered the breadth of Christopher's practice, noting his work on "succession planning arrangements, joint ventures and strategic partnerships involving investment firms and asset managers," alongside GP stakes and asset management M&A.
