

Melanie Katsur Honored as 2025 MCCA Rising Star

Accolades | July 9, 2025

Minority Corporate Counsel Association

Of counsel Melanie Katsur has been named a 2025 MCCA Rising Star — one of “an exceptional group of ‘attorneys to watch,’ recognized for their professional excellence, leadership, and impact on the legal field and their communities.” The MCCA (Minority Corporate Counsel Association) is a non-profit organization whose vision is to advance workplaces so that opportunity is equal, inclusion is foundational, and everyone can rise united. It does this by partnering with law firms and legal departments to expand hiring, retention, and leadership pathways — helping organizations tap into the full breadth of legal talent.
