Global Arbitration Review

Partner Penny Madden KC and of counsel Ceyda Knoebel have co-authored the chapter "Arbitrability and Public Policy Challenges" in the fourth edition of Global Arbitration Review's Guide to Challenging and Enforcing Arbitration Awards. The chapter looks closely at the challenges raised on arbitrability and public policy grounds before national courts in the recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards and how these concepts are interpreted and applied in practice, highlighting most recent developments in the law. This chapter was first published on Global Arbitration Review in June 2025; for further in-depth analysis, please visit "The Guide to Challenging and Enforcing Arbitration Awards – Fourth Edition."
