

Rahim Moloo Appointed Vice Chair of the International Bar Association's Arbitration Committee

Accolades | January 13, 2022

International Bar Association Arbitration Committee

New York partner Rahim Moloo has been appointed Vice Chair of the International Bar Association's Arbitration Committee, which focuses on laws, practice and procedures relating to the arbitration of transnational disputes. Through its conferences, publications and projects, the Committee seeks to share information about international arbitration, promote its use and improve its effectiveness. The International Bar Association approved the new officers in January 2022. Rahim Moloo's practice focuses on assisting clients to resolve complex international disputes in the most effective and efficient way possible. His experience spans a number of industries, including energy, mining, telecommunications, financial services, infrastructure, construction and consumer products.

Related People

Rahim Moloo