Partner Robert Little recently shared with Texas Lawyer several powerful trends that are reshaping the future of dealmaking, especially in high-stakes M&A transactions, and told the publication that “staying ahead of the curve in a competitive market — particularly when handling high-stakes transactions — requires a combination of strategic thinking and continuous development.”

Robert also stressed the importance of offering clients proactive advice, not just reactive legal advice: “I anticipate client needs and suggest structures or strategies before they ask.”

Robert is global Co-Chair of our Mergers and Acquisitions Practice Group and a member of the firm's Executive Committee. He is a finalist for Texas Lawyer's 2025 Dealmakers of the Year award.
