Sam Liversidge and Courtney Spears Author “Managing the Noise of Large Cases and Teams” for ABA Litigation Journal

Article | June 10, 2026

ABA Litigation Journal

In their article for the ABA Litigation Journal [PDF] partner Sam Liversidge and associate Courtney Spears discuss strategies for successfully managing complex litigation matters and teams.

They write that while large, complex cases may generate a lot of “noise” both internally and externally, “ensuring proper organization of teams with clear lines of communication and other authority from the outset will allow you to manage the noise level and channel it into a winning strategy.”
