

Supreme Court Round-Up (July 2020)

Client Alert | July 15, 2020

Following the close of the Supreme Court's 2019 Term, Gibson Dunn's Supreme Court Round-Up provides summaries of the Court's opinions, the questions presented in cases that the Court will hear next Term, and other key developments on the Court's docket. Gibson Dunn presented 5 oral arguments during the 2019 Term, and was involved in 18 additional cases as counsel for amici curiae. To date, the Court has granted certiorari in 31 cases for the 2020 Term, and Gibson Dunn is co-counsel for a party in 1 of those cases.

Spearheaded by former Solicitor General Theodore B. Olson, the Supreme Court Round-Up keeps clients apprised of the Court's most recent actions. The Round-Up previews cases scheduled for argument, tracks the actions of the Office of the Solicitor General, and recaps recent opinions. The Round-Up provides a concise, substantive analysis of the Court's actions. Its easy-to-use format allows the reader to identify what is on the Court's docket at any given time, and to see what issues the Court will be taking up next. The Round-Up is the ideal resource for busy practitioners seeking an in-depth, timely, and objective report on the Court's actions.

Gibson Dunn has a longstanding, high-profile presence before the Supreme Court of the United States, appearing numerous times in the past decade in a variety of cases. During the Supreme Court's 5 most recent Terms, 9 different Gibson Dunn partners have presented oral argument; the firm has argued a total of 16 cases in the Supreme Court during that period, including closely watched cases with far-reaching significance in separation of powers, administrative law, intellectual property, and federalism. Moreover, although the grant rate for petitions for certiorari is below 1%, Gibson Dunn's petitions have captured the Court's attention: Gibson Dunn has persuaded the Court to grant 29 petitions for certiorari since 2006.
