"We're thrilled to welcome Pamela to Gibson Dunn," said Ken Doran, Chairman and Managing Partner of Gibson Dunn. "Pamela is a respected senior tax advisor with deep expertise across a broad range of U.S. and international tax matters. The breadth of her experience will be an invaluable asset for our clients as they work to navigate today's increasingly complex tax challenges, both in the U.S. and abroad."

"Pamela is a terrific addition to the firm," said Andrew Lance, Co-Partner in Charge of the New York office. "She is a highly regarded lawyer in the New York market who will further deepen our strong bench of New York-based transactional tax lawyers."

"I'm excited to join Gibson Dunn. The firm has a wonderful reputation in the market – for both its solid transactional platform and its collaborative culture," said Endreny. "I am very much looking forward to continuing my practice at Gibson Dunn."

About Pamela Lawrence Endreny

Endreny regularly advises clients on a broad range of tax matters, including public and private M&A, spin-offs, joint ventures, restructurings, financings and capital markets transactions, as well as on all types of matters involving asset managers and private equity funds. She is also experienced in obtaining private letter rulings from the IRS on spin-offs and other corporate transactions and in assisting in audits and tax controversies.

Endreny currently serves as chair of the Financial Transactions & Products Committee of the ABA Tax Section and as Co-Chair, Investment Funds of the Tax Section Executive Committee of the New York State Bar Association. She frequently writes and speaks on emerging tax topics.

Before joining Gibson Dunn, Endreny served as a partner at Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP. She received her J.D. from Columbia Law School in 1994. She received her B.A. from Brown University in 1986, magna cum laude.
