The Legal 500

Four Gibson Dunn partners were featured by The Legal 500 in its 2024 M&A Powerlist. The list highlights the leading M&A practitioners working across the United States. Dallas partner Jeffrey Chapman, Denver partner Beau Stark, and Washington, D.C. partners Stephen Glover and George Stamas were recognized. The guide was published on March 6, 2024. Jeffrey Chapman represents private equity firms and public and private companies in diverse cross-border and domestic transactions in a broad range of industries. Beau Stark advises private equity funds and other public and private enterprises in the energy sector and a broad range of other industries, in both international and domestic markets. He has broad experience in all aspects of corporate practice, including public and private mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, public offerings, capital markets transactions, securities offerings, management participation and financing, tender offers, private fund formation and general corporate matters. Stephen Glover has an extensive practice representing public and private companies in complex mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, equity and debt offerings and corporate governance matters. His clients include large public corporations, emerging growth companies and middle market companies in a wide range of industries. He also advises private equity firms, individual investors and others. George Stamas' practice focuses on public company and private equity mergers and acquisitions and corporate securities transactions. He also counsels C-level executives and boards of directors on corporate governance matters.
