Accolades | January 25, 2023

Daily Journal

The Daily Journal named Los Angeles partners Theodore J. Boutrous Jr., Richard Doren, and Theane Evangelis to its annual list of Leading Commercial Litigators. The list honors lawyers who have served as lead counsel on major litigation that substantially impacted California. Their profiles were published on January 25, 2023. Theodore J. Boutrous Jr. has represented clients in the federal and state appellate courts throughout the nation in a wide spectrum of cases. He has argued hundreds of appeals, including before the Supreme Court of the United States, 12 different federal circuit courts of appeals, 10 different state supreme courts and a multitude of other appellate and trial courts in complex civil and constitutional matters. Richard Doren has extensive experience leading complex civil litigation matters in state and federal courts around the country, and has argued appeals in numerous appellate courts. He has successfully tried cases involving many different substantive areas, including antitrust, unfair competition, breach of contract, healthcare fraud, false advertising, wrongful death, partnership disputes, insurance coverage, and wrongful termination, among others. Theane Evangelis is Co-Chair of the firm's global Litigation Practice Group. She has served as lead counsel in a wide range of bet-the-company appellate, constitutional, class action, labor and employment, media and entertainment, and crisis management matters in trial and appellate courts across the country.
