Accolades | November 27, 2023

Los Angeles Times

Los Angeles partner Tiaunia Henry was recognized by the Los Angeles Times as a 2023 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion and Accessibility (DEIA) Visionary. Tiaunia participated in the 2023 Los Angeles Times DEIA Forum, which took place on October 19th and gathered diversity and inclusion leaders throughout Los Angeles who champion initiatives that foster a sense of belonging among employees, clients, and consumers in their respective communities and organizations. Tiaunia has been an active member of the LA Area Diversity Committee since joining the firm in 2007. She has served as Co-Chair of Gibson Dunn's LA Area Diversity Committee since 2012 and has focused on developing programming to support the professional advancement of all attorneys at the firm. She has also served as Chair of the Affinity Groups for Black attorneys and Women of Color in Los Angeles as well as being actively involved in the Los Angeles Parenting Group. Tiaunia is also responsible for one of the Firm's most successful diversity programs. She worked closely with Gibson Dunn's Global Diversity Team to spearhead and launch the Diverse Perspectives in the Law Speaker Series, a firmwide program that explores our diverse attorneys' experiences in navigating issues around race and inclusion throughout their lives and how it has shaped their careers in the legal profession.
