Partner Christopher Dusseault, recently named to the Daily Journal's list of Top Antitrust Lawyers, described several of his most challenging cases for a profile in the publication. "My cases often involve products and services that people buy and use every day and that are an important part of their lives," Chris noted. "My job is to explain to judges and jurors that while these products are important to their daily lives, that doesn't mean the story they are being told is what actually happened."
