

Webcast: Emerging Trends in U.S. Export Control Enforcement

Webcasts | June 4, 2024

U.S. export controls now play a central role in the U.S. Government's management of geopolitical conflict and strategic competition, and the Departments of Commerce and Justice are devoting more resources and novel tools to enforce them. Through a moderated discussion, Gibson Dunn's Export Control, White Collar Defense, and National Security experts analyze emerging trends in U.S. export control enforcement and share their perspectives on how investigation strategy should evolve to address them.
