GIBSON DUNN

Webcast: Global Anti-Corruption New Laws and FCPA Developments

Webcasts | November 17, 2025

Join our leading anti-corruption and Foreign Corrupt Practices Act lawyers for a dynamic webcast covering the latest global enforcement trends and legislative developments. From new anti-corruption laws in key jurisdictions to evolving U.S. Department of Justice and Securities and Exchange Commission priorities under the FCPA, this recorded session provides practical insights for in-house counsel, compliance professionals, and deal teams navigating cross-border risk. Our lawyers discuss recent cases, regulatory shifts, and best practices for managing investigations, disclosures, and compliance programs in an increasingly complex global landscape. Topics include:

- New anti-corruption laws in Europe, Asia, and the Middle East
- DOJ/SEC enforcement priorities and FCPA updates
- Cross-border investigations and multi-jurisdictional risk
- Compliance program expectations and voluntary disclosure strategies

MCLE CREDIT INFORMATION: This program has been approved for credit in accordance with the requirements of the New York State Continuing Legal Education Board for a maximum of 1.0 credit hour, of which 1.0 credit hour may be applied toward the areas of professional practice requirement. This course is approved for transitional/non-transitional credit. Attorneys seeking New York credit must obtain an Affirmation Form prior to watching the archived version of this webcast. Please contact CLE@gibsondunn.com to request the MCLE form. Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP certifies that this activity has been approved for MCLE credit by the State Bar of California in the amount of 1.0 hour in the General category. California attorneys may claim “self-study” credit for viewing the archived version of this webcast. No certificate of attendance is required for California “self-study” credit.

PANELISTS: Patrick F. Stokes is a partner in Gibson Dunn’s Washington, D.C. office and Co-Chair of the Anti-Corruption & FCPA Practice Group. He handles internal corporate investigations, government enforcement matters, and compliance reviews and routinely advises clients on anti-corruption compliance, monitorships, and risk assessments. Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Patrick headed the FCPA Unit of the U.S. Department of Justice, where he managed the FCPA enforcement program and all criminal FCPA matters throughout the United States. Katharina Humphrey is a partner in Gibson Dunn’s Munich office and a member of the firm’s White-Collar Defense and Investigations practice. She advises clients on internal investigations and compliance matters across Europe and beyond, with particular expertise in anti-bribery (including German laws and the U.S. FCPA), sanctions, AML, and the design and evaluation of compliance management systems. Oliver Welch is resident partner in Gibson Dunn’s Hong Kong office and is a member of the White Collar Defense and Investigations Practice Group. He has extensive experience representing multi-national corporations throughout the Asia region on a wide variety of compliance and anti-corruption issues. He focuses on internal and regulatory investigations, including those involving the FCPA, and regularly counsels clients on their anti-corruption compliance programs and controls and advises on anti-corruption due diligence in connection with corporate acquisitions. Marija Bra?kovi? is an associate in the London office of Gibson Dunn. She is a member of the firm’s Litigation, White Collar Defense and Investigations, Fintech and Digital Assets and

Related People

Patrick F. Stokes

Katharina E. Humphrey

Oliver Welch

Marija Bra?kovi?

Rashed Z. Khalifah

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com

Privacy, Cybersecurity and Data Innovation Practice Groups. Marija has substantial experience in both domestic and international dispute resolution, including litigation and investigations, and regulatory compliance and counselling across sectors, with a focus on fintech and emerging digital regulations. Her practice has an emphasis on high-profile and politically sensitive matters, such as cases relating to bribery, money laundering and allegations of cross-border and international crimes. Rashed Khalifah is an associate in the Riyadh office of Gibson Dunn. Rashed is a dispute resolution and regulatory associate with a focus on complex commercial, construction, and tax disputes, as well as advisory mandates involving government entities and legal reform. Rashed joined the Riyadh office of Gibson Dunn after serving as a Senior Associate at a leading law firm in Jordan. He regularly advises government bodies and state-owned companies on procurement and compliance matters, particularly in connection with public construction contracts and project-related agreements. © 2025 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. Attorney Advertising: These materials were prepared for general informational purposes only based on information available at the time of publication and are not intended as, do not constitute, and should not be relied upon as, legal advice or a legal opinion on any specific facts or circumstances. Gibson Dunn (and its affiliates, attorneys, and employees) shall not have any liability in connection with any use of these materials. The sharing of these materials does not establish an attorney-client relationship with the recipient and should not be relied upon as an alternative for advice from qualified counsel. Please note that facts and circumstances may vary, and prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome.

Related Capabilities

Anti-Corruption & FCPA

© 2026 Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP. All rights reserved. For contact and other information, please visit us at www.gibsondunn.com. | www.gibsondunn.com