Webcast: Managing Global Cross-Borders Investigations

Webcasts | January 15, 2026

Join our lawyers for a recorded webcast addressing key elements in managing cross-border investigations, including both internal investigations and government-facing investigations. They walk you through the key aspects that you should have in mind when structuring and carrying out an investigation, including the relevant addressee of the results of the investigation, considerations to maximize the legal privilege in multi-jurisdictional settings, considerations to be made before sharing findings with domestic and foreign government agencies, and considerations on whether to engage separate counsel for individual witnesses.
