Webcast: State AG Developments

Webcasts | February 26, 2026

State Attorneys General are stepping into the spotlight with increasingly assertive investigations and enforcement actions to regulate conduct across consumer protection, government contracting, data privacy, antitrust, securities fraud, environmental violations, and beyond, and often on a national scale. This recorded session explores the expanding jurisdictional reach of state AGs, spotlights recent multi-state actions and landmark settlements, and highlights tactical considerations for corporate counsel preparing for heightened scrutiny at the state level.
