

Webcast: The New SEC: New Director and Enforcement

Webcasts | November 4, 2025

This year has ushered in significant changes at the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and in SEC enforcement. The shifts from personnel to process to priorities have broad implications for the enforcement program. Our lawyers bring their deep experience facing and serving at the SEC to provide an insider view and cover the latest hot topics in SEC enforcement. The program delivers actionable insights for the current and changing enforcement landscape impacting issuers, investment advisers, broker-dealers, security-based swap dealers, individuals, and other market participants.
