Who’s Who Legal 2023 Recognizes Gibson Dunn Partners in Project Finance

Accolades | May 31, 2023

Three Gibson Dunn partners were featured by Who’s Who Legal in its 2023 Project Finance guide. New York partner Tomer Pinkusiewicz was named as a Global Elite Thought Leader. New York partner Nicholas Politan and Singapore partner Brad Roach were also recommended. The guide was published May 26, 2023. Gibson Dunn maintains a leading Projects and Infrastructure Practice Group, with experience across multiple jurisdictions and an in-depth knowledge of the industrial, commercial, financial, risk management and political issues that are inherent in the procurement, development, financing, construction, operation, acquisition and disposition of major domestic and international projects and infrastructure facilities. The group has been widely recognized among the top project finance and public-private partnership (PPP) practices worldwide, and has particular experience in acquisitions and dispositions of projects and infrastructure assets, in addition to procurement, development and financing of the same.
