Who’s Who Legal Recognizes Seven Gibson Dunn Partners in 2024 Energy Guide

Accolades | June 19, 2024

Who’s Who Legal

Seven Gibson Dunn partners were featured by Who’s Who Legal in its 2024 Energy guide. Michael P. Darden, Anna Howell, Brad Roach and Renad Younes were named Global Elite Thought Leaders. Tull Florey, Hillary Holmes and William Hollaway were also recommended. The list was published on June 19 2024. Gibson Dunn’s Energy Practice Group has a wide array of experience across all parts of the energy sector – from traditional sources of energy such as oil and gas and electric utilities to renewable forms such as solar and wind. The firm has handled energy-related matters involving numerous practice areas, including mergers, acquisitions and divestitures; debt and project finance; capital markets; joint ventures; fund formation; project and infrastructure development; dispute resolution; commercial arrangements; and all manners of energy-related regulatory and antitrust issues. This experience enables us to provide clients with a deep bench that is unique among law firms.
