

MOST INFLUENTIAL

Minority Attorneys

IN LOS ANGELES

With Los Angeles the melting pot that it is, we're truly a national leader when it comes to influential minorities – and the field of law is no exception. There are some particularly stellar minority attorneys in the LA region and we've alphabetically listed 50 of the very best of them here, along with some basic information about their careers, practice and some relevant recent successes they've achieved.

Congratulations to the attorneys who made this list and thank you for working to keep the people and businesses of Los Angeles on the right track!

KEVIN MASUDA*PartnerGibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLPYears Practicing: 24Years with Current Firm: Since last August*

KEVIN Masuda, a partner in Gibson Dunn's Media, Entertainment and Technology practice and Sports Law practice, regularly represents content companies, including motion picture studios and music companies, technology companies, gaming companies, private equity funds, sports and talent agencies, and other clients in various types of business transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, investments, restructurings, public and private securities offerings, licensing agreements, sponsorships, and other strategic agreements.

Masuda works with some of the highest profile names in the sector. Recently, he advised MGM Resorts International on its purchase of the remaining 50% interest in the Borgata Hotel Casino & Spa, the top performing casino in Atlantic City; Hugh Hefner on the sale of the Playboy Mansion; Michael Eisner's company The Tornante Group in its acquisition of Portsmouth Football Club; and The Creed Company in the creation of Full Stop Management. Among Masuda's recent transactions is his work advising on Deluxe Entertainment Services Group's acquisition of Sfera, a global, cloud-based localization platform and distributed services firm.

Posted with permission from Los Angeles Business Journal®

For more information on the use of this content, contact Wright's Media at 877-652-5295.