1. Carney v. Adams, No. 19-309 (3d Cir., 922 F.3d 166; cert. granted Dec. 6, 2019, with Question 3 directed by the Court; argued Oct. 5, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the First Amendment invalidates a longstanding state constitutional provision that limits judges affiliated with any one political party to no more than a “bare majority” on the State’s three highest courts, with the other seats reserved for judges affiliated with the “other major political party.” (2) Whether the Third Circuit erred in holding that a provision of the Delaware Constitution requiring that no more than a “bare majority” of three of the state courts may be made up of judges affiliated with any one political party is not severable from a provision that judges who are not members of the majority party on those courts must be members of the other “major political party,” when the former requirement existed for more than fifty years without the latter, and the former requirement, without the latter, continues to govern appointments to two other courts. (3) Whether respondent has demonstrated Article III standing.
2. Texas v. New Mexico, No. 22065 (Original Jurisdiction; CVSG June 3, 2019; motion for review opposed Dec. 9, 2019; motion for review set for oral argument in due course Jan. 27, 2020; argued Oct. 5, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the River Master clearly erred in retroactively amending the River Master Manual and his final accounting for 2015 without Texas’s consent and contrary to this Court’s decree that governs modification of the manual and the period for review of the River Master’s final determinations. (2) Whether the River Master clearly erred by charging Texas for evaporative losses without authority under the Pecos River Compact.

Whether a final judgment in favor of the United States in an action brought under the Federal Tort Claims Act (“FTCA”), 28 U.S.C. § 1346(b), on the ground that a private person would not be liable to the claimant under state tort law for the injuries alleged, bars a claim under Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), that is brought by the same claimant, based on the same injuries, and against the same governmental employees whose acts gave rise to the claimant’s FTCA claim.
18. California v. Texas, No. 19-840, consolidated with Texas v. California, No. 19-1019 (5th Cir., 945 F.3d 355; cert. granted Mar. 2, 2020; argument scheduled Nov. 10, 2020). (2) Whether reducing the amount specified in Section 5000A(c) to zero rendered the minimum coverage provision unconstitutional. (3) Whether the minimum coverage provision is severable from the rest of the Affordable Care Act (“ACA”). (4) Whether the district court properly declared the ACA invalid in its entirety and unenforceable anywhere.
19. Van Buren v. United States, No. 19-783 (11th Cir., 940 F.3d 1192; cert. granted Apr. 20, 2020; argument scheduled Nov. 30, 2020). 20. Edwards v. Vannoy, No. 19-5807 (5th Cir., No. 18-31095; cert. granted May 4, 2020, with the Question Presented directed by the Court; argument scheduled Nov. 30, 2020). Whether the Court’s decision in Ramos v. Louisiana, 590 U.S. ____ (2020), applies retroactively to cases on federal collateral review.
21. Nestlé USA, Inc. v. Doe I, No. 19-416, consolidated with Cargill, Inc. v. Doe I, No. 19-453 (9th Cir., 929 F.3d 623; CVSG Jan. 13, 2020; cert. supported May 26, 2020, limited to No. 19-453, with a Question 3 proposed by the SG; cert. granted July 2, 2020; argument scheduled Dec. 1, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether an aiding and abetting claim against a domestic corporation brought under the Alien Tort Statute (“ATS”), 28 U.S.C. § 1350, may overcome the extraterritoriality bar where the claim is based on allegations of general corporate activity in the United States and where plaintiffs cannot trace the alleged harms, which occurred abroad at the hands of unidentified foreign actors, to that activity. (2) Whether the Judiciary has the authority under the ATS to impose liability on domestic corporations.

22. CIC Servs., LLC v. IRS, No. 19-930 (6th Cir., 925 F.3d 247; cert. granted May 4, 2020; argument scheduled Dec. 1, 2020). Cir., 911 F.3d 1172; CVSG Jan. 21, 2020; cert. supported May 26, 2020, limited to Question 1; cert. granted July 2, 2020, limited to Question 1; argument scheduled Dec. 7, 2020). Whether the district court may abstain from exercising jurisdiction under the Foreign Sovereign Immunity Act (“FSIA”) for reasons of international comity, where former Hungarian nationals have sued the nation of Hungary to recover the value of property lost in Hungary during World War II and plaintiffs made no attempt to exhaust local Hungarian remedies.
25. Fed. Republic of Germany v. Philipp, No. 19-351, consolidated with Philipp v. Fed. Republic of Germany, No. 19-520 (D.C. Cir., 894 F.3d 406; CVSG Jan. 21, 2020; cert. supported May 26, 2020; cert. granted July 2, 2020; argument scheduled Dec. 7, 2020). The Questions Presented are:
 - (1) Whether the “expropriation exception” of the FSIA, 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(3), which abrogates foreign sovereign immunity when “rights in property taken in violation of international law are in issue,” provides jurisdiction over claims that a foreign sovereign has violated international human rights law when taking property from its own national within its own borders, even though such claims do not implicate the established international law governing States’ responsibility for takings of property.
 - (2) Whether the doctrine of international comity is unavailable in cases against foreign sovereigns, even in cases of considerable historical and political significance to the foreign sovereign, and even where the foreign nation has a domestic framework for addressing the claims.
 - (3) Whether the Federal Republic of Germany is subject to jurisdiction under the expropriation exception of the FSIA because Germany’s instrumentality (and possessor of the property at issue) Stiftung Preussischer Kulturbesitz is engaged in commercial activity in the United States.

The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Federal Housing Finance Agency’s (“FHFA”) structure violates the separation of powers. (2) Whether the courts must set aside a final agency action that FHFA took when it was unconstitutionally structured and strike down the statutory provisions that make FHFA independent. (3) Whether the statute’s anti-injunction clause, which precludes courts from taking any action that would “restrain or affect the exercise of powers or functions of the Agency as a conservator,” 12 U.S.C. § 4617(f), precludes a federal court from setting aside the Third Amendment to agreements between FHFA and the Department of the Treasury. (4) Whether the statute’s succession clause—under which FHFA, as conservator, inherits the shareholders’ rights to bring derivative actions on behalf of the enterprises—precludes the shareholders from challenging the Third Amendment.

Cases Awaiting An Argument Date

(2) Whether § 13(b) authorizes district courts to enter an injunction that orders the return of unlawfully obtained funds.

(2) Whether the court of appeals violated the remand rule as set forth in INS v. Ventura, 537 U.S. 12 (2002) (per curiam), when it determined in the first instance that respondent was eligible for asylum and entitled to withholding of removal.
33. Federal Communications Commission v. Prometheus Radio Project, No. 19-1231, consolidated with *National Association of Broadcasters v. The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the court of appeals erred in vacating as arbitrary and capricious the Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") orders under review, which, among other things, relaxed the agency's cross-ownership restrictions to accommodate changed market conditions. (2) Whether under Section 202(h) of the Telecommunications Act of 1996 the FCC may repeal or modify media ownership rules that it determines are no longer "necessary in the public interest as the result of competition" without statistical evidence about the prospective effect of its rule changes on minority and female ownership.
34. B.P. p.l.c. v. Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, No. 19-1189 (4th Cir., 952 F.3d 452; cert. granted Oct. 2, 2020). 35. Brnovich v. Democratic National Committee, No. 19-1257, consolidated with *Arizona Republican Party v. 36. Florida v. Georgia, No. 220142 (Original jurisdiction; exceptions to the Second Report of the Special Master filed Apr. 13, 2020; exceptions opposed June 26, 2020; exceptions set for oral argument in due course Oct. 5, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether exacting scrutiny or strict scrutiny applies to disclosure requirements that burden nonelectoral, expressive association rights. (2) Whether the exacting scrutiny this Court has long required of laws that abridge the freedoms of speech and association outside the election context—as called for by NAACP v. Alabama ex rel. Patterson, 357 U.S. 449 (1958), and its progeny—can be satisfied absent any showing that a blanket governmental demand for the individual identities and addresses of major donors to private nonprofit organizations is narrowly tailored to an asserted law-enforcement interest. (3) Whether California’s disclosure requirement violates charities’ and their donors’ freedom of association and speech facially or as applied to the Law Center.
2. Texas v. California, No. 22O153 (Original Jurisdiction; CVSG June 15, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether California’s economic sanctions against Texas and Texans are unconstitutional. (2) Whether California must remove Texas from its travel ban list.

4. FMC Corp. v. Shoshone-Bannock Tribes, No. 19-1143 (9th Cir., 942 F.3d 916; CVSG June 29, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Ninth Circuit correctly holds that tribal jurisdiction over nonmembers is established whenever a Montana v. United States, 450 U.S. 544 (1981), exception is met, or whether, as the Seventh and Eighth Circuits have held, a court must also determine that the exercise of such jurisdiction stems from the Tribe’s inherent authority to set conditions on entry, preserve tribal self-government, or control internal relations. (2) Whether the Ninth Circuit has construed the Montana exceptions to swallow the general rule that Tribes lack jurisdiction over nonmembers.
5. Montana and Wyoming v. Washington, No. 22O152 (Original Jurisdiction; CVSG Oct. 5, 2020). Whether the Court should grant leave to Montana and Wyoming to file an original bill of complaint alleging that Washington’s denial of port access violates the Commerce Clause.
6. Hughes v. Northwestern University, No. 19-1401 (7th Cir., 953 F.3d 980; CVSG Oct. 5, 2020). Whether allegations that a defined-contribution retirement plan paid or charged its participants fees that substantially exceeded fees for alternative available investment products or services are sufficient to state a claim against plan fiduciaries for breach of the duty of prudence under ERISA, 29 U.S.C. § 1104(a)(1)(B).

7. Deutsche Bank Trust Co. v. Robert R. McCormick Foundation, No. 20-8 (2d Cir., 946 F.3d 66; CVSG Oct. 5, 2020). (2) Whether laws allowing creditors to avoid certain fraudulent transfers are preempted because they are an obstacle to the “purposes and objectives” of 11 U.S.C. § 546(e). (3) Whether Section 546(e) exempts certain fraudulent transfers from avoidance if executed via a bank as a conduit, on the ground that the bank’s customer is itself a “financial institution.”

argument scheduled Dec. 7, 2020). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the “expropriation exception” of the FSIA, 28 U.S.C. § 1605(a)(3), which abrogates foreign sovereign immunity when “rights in property taken in violation of international law are in issue,” provides jurisdiction over claims that a foreign sovereign has violated international human rights law when taking property from its own national within its own borders, even though such claims do not implicate the established international law governing States’ responsibility for takings of property. (2) Whether the doctrine of international comity is unavailable in cases against foreign sovereigns, even in cases of considerable historical and political significance to the foreign sovereign, and even where the foreign nation has a domestic framework for addressing the claims. (3) Whether the Federal Republic of Germany is subject to jurisdiction under the expropriation exception of the FSIA because Germany’s instrumentality (and possessor of the property at issue) Stiftung Preussischer Kulturbesitz is engaged in commercial activity in the United States.

Doe I*, No. 19-416, and Cargill, Inc. v. Doe I, No. 19-453 does not effectively eliminate respondents’ substantive claims). Whether an order denying a federal contractor’s claim of derivative sovereign immunity is an immediately appealable final order under the collateral-order doctrine.
