International Comparative Legal Guide – Corporate Investigations 2026

Gibson Dunn announces release of the International Comparative Legal Guide – Corporate Investigations 2026

Gibson Dunn is pleased to announce with Global Legal Group the release of the International Comparative Legal Guide – Corporate Investigations 2026. Gibson Dunn partner Michael Diamant is the Contributing Editor of the publication, which covers common issues in corporate investigations laws and regulations – including internal investigation, self-disclosure to enforcement authorities, investigation process, confidentiality and attorney-client privileges. The Guide, comprised of 2 expert analysis chapters and 13 jurisdiction chapters, is live and FREE to access HERE.

Mr. Diamant, Gibson Dunn partner Melissa Farrar, and associates Monica Limeng Woolley and Ben Schlichting jointly authored the expert analysis chapter on “Corporate Investigations Laws and Regulations - Navigating Attorney-Client Privilege and Work Product Protection in Corporate Investigations 2026.”

In addition, Mr. Diamant, Ms. Farrar, of counsel Lora MacDonald, and associate Todd Truesdale co-authored the jurisdiction chapter on “Corporate Investigations Laws and Regulations USA 2026.”

You can view these informative and comprehensive chapters via the links below:
