IMLA AMICUS SERVICE AWARD

On Friday, April 15th, 2016 at its Mid-Year Seminar in Washington, D.C., IMLA recognized Thomas Hungar, Jason Neal and Andrew Davis of Gibson Dunn & Crutcher for their efforts in drafting a Supreme Court Petition Stage amicus brief on behalf of IMLA and other local government organizations.

The International Municipal Lawyers Association's Amicus Service Award seeks to recognize lawyers who have been actively involved in legal advocacy for and on behalf of local governments and IMLA, and who have done exemplary work to protect and advance local government interests. Mr. Hungar, Mr. Neal and Mr. Davis drafted the amicus brief in the City of Houston v. Zamora case.

"IMLA's legal advocacy program is vital to our mission and without lawyers like them, we would not be able to sustain it." – Amanda Kellar, Associate General Counsel / Director of Legal Advocacy, IMLA

IMLA thanks Mr. Hungar, Mr. Neal and Mr. Davis for their hard work and dedication in advancing the interests of local government!
