

JOSHUA LIPSHUTZ

Partner, Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

What the company does: International law firm

Accomplishments: Lipshutz is on the team that recently took over as Uber's lead trial and appellate counsel in a series of class-action lawsuits against the company. Lipshutz was also a critical part of Gibson Dunn's involvement in the battle for marriage equality for gay and lesbian Americans. He is involved with Bay Area nonprofit Students Matter, an education reform advocacy organization.

Age: 38

Education: B.S., economics, University of Pennsylvania; J.D., Stanford University.

Residence: San Francisco

Where were you born: Queens, NY

First job: Camp counselor at Pierce Country Day Camp.

Guilty pleasure: Umami burger and Smitten ice cream.

Most surprising fact about you: I hiked to Mt. Everest Base Camp in Nepal (elevation 18,500 feet).

What was your first car in high school: Nissan Pathfinder.

Proudest accomplishment: Helping to secure marriage equality rights nationwide.

What else do you plan to accomplish by 40: Continue fighting for the educational rights of students nationwide.

As a child, what did you want to be when you grew up: A lawyer.