

WASHINGTON BUSINESS JOURNAL

40 UNDER 40

YOUNG AND HUNGRY

A WATCH LIST OF YOUNG PROFESSIONALS MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Throughout the month of April, the Washington Business Journal named 10 honorees each week online to our 40 Under 40 Awards. In case you missed any of the winners, we've compiled them all here and presented the honorees in random order. To qualify, recipients had to live and work in the Washington region and be under age 40 as of June 11, 2015. After accomplishing so much early in their careers, you'd better believe we expect these 40 to make headlines in the months to come. Congratulations to all the honorees.

DANIEL CHUNG

OF COUNSEL,
GIBSON, DUNN & CRUTCHER LLP

Age: 36

Residence: Chevy Chase

Education: Bachelor's in history, Harvard College; J.D., Harvard Law School

► Daniel Chung joined law firm Gibson Dunn & Crutcher in 2012 and has developed a practice that focuses on white-collar criminal defense, internal investigations, regulatory enforcement and commercial litigation matters. Prior to joining Gibson Dunn, Chung served for four years as an assistant U.S. attorney in the Southern District of New York. In that position, he conducted over 150 grand jury investigations and charged and achieved convictions of over 320 defendants.