

POWER LAWYERS 2012

AMERICA'S TOP 100 ENTERTAINMENT ATTORNEYS

Ruth Fisher

Gibson, Dunn & Crutcher LLP

A rare female power player in corporate entertainment transactions, Fisher recently helped Madison Square Garden with its $24 million purchase of L.A.'s Forum. She represented Technicolor when it acquired assets from Cinedigm and advised on Cumulus Media's $2.4 billion purchase of Citadel Broadcasting, working on behalf of its financial adviser, Macquarie Capital. And she advised Universal when it acquired French animator Mac Guff Ligne (Despicable Me).

➔ Worst thing ever said to me

"When I was a young lawyer, I flew to New York on a deal I had been working on for months. My client greeted me in the hotel lobby, and when another man joined us, he turned and said, 'You're never going to believe it, but this little girl is our lawyer.'"
