Decided Cases

1. Madigan v. Levin*, No. 12-872 (7th Cir., 692 F.3d 607; cert. granted Mar. 18, 2013; argued on Oct. 7, 2013). Whether the Seventh Circuit erred in holding, in an acknowledged departure from the rule in at least four other circuits, that state and local government employees may avoid the Federal Age Discrimination in Employment Act's comprehensive remedial regime by bringing age discrimination claims directly under the Equal Protection Clause and 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

   Decided Oct. 15, 2013 (571 U.S. __). The writ of certiorari was dismissed as improvidently granted.

2. Cline v. OK Coalition for Reproductive Justice*, No. 12-1094 (Sup. Ct. Ok., 292 P.3d 27; cert. granted June 27, 2013). Oklahoma law requires that abortion-inducing drugs be administered according to the protocol described on the drugs' FDA-approved labels. The Question Presented is whether the Oklahoma Supreme Court erred in holding that this Oklahoma law is facially unconstitutional under Planned Parenthood v. Casey.[1]

   Decided Nov. 4, 2013 (571 U.S. __). The writ of certiorari was dismissed as improvidently granted.

[1] The Court certified to the Supreme Court of Oklahoma the question whether H.B. No. 1970, Section 1, Chapter 216, O.S.L. 2011 prohibits: (1) the use of misoprostol to induce abortions, including the use of misoprostol in conjunction with mifepristone according to a protocol approved by the Food and Drug Administration; and (2) the use of methotrexate to treat ectopic pregnancies. The Supreme Court of Oklahoma submitted answers to these certified questions on October 29, 2013.

Cases To Be Argued

1. Chadbourne & Parke LLP v. Troice*, No. 12-79; Willis of Colorado Inc. v. Troice, No. 12-86; Proskauer Rose LLP v. Troice, No. 12-88 (5th Cir., 675 F.3d 503; CVSG Oct. 1, 2012; cert. opposed Dec. 14, 2012; cert. granted Jan. 18, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioners; argued on Oct. 7, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Securities Litigation Uniform Standards Act of 1998 ("SLUSA"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 77p(b), 78bb(f)(1), prohibits private class actions based on state law only where the alleged purchase or sale of a covered security is "more than tangentially related" to the "heart, crux or gravamen" of the alleged fraud. (2) Whether the SLUSA precludes a class action in which the defendant is sued for aiding and abetting fraud, but a non-party, rather than the defendant, made the only alleged misrepresentation in connection with a covered securities transaction.

2. McCutcheon v. Federal Election Commission*, No. 12-536 (D.D.C., 2012 WL 4466482; cert. granted Feb. 19, 2013; argued on Oct. 8, 2013). Federal law imposes two types of limits on individual political contributions: Base limits restrict the amount an individual may contribute to a candidate committee ($2,500 per election), a national-party committee ($30,800 per calendar year), a state, local, and district party committee (combined $10,000 per calendar year), and a political-action committee ($5,000 per calendar year). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1). Biennial limits restrict the aggregate amount an individual may contribute biennially to candidate committees ($46,200) and all other committees ($70,800). 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the biennial limit on contributions to non-candidate committees is unconstitutional for lacking a constitutionally cognizable interest as applied to contributions to national-party committees. (2) Whether the biennial limits on contributions to non-candidate committees are facially unconstitutional for lacking a constitutionally cognizable interest. (3) Whether the biennial limits on contributions to non-candidate committees are unconstitutionally too low, as applied and facially. (4) Whether the biennial limit on contributions to candidate committees is unconstitutional for lacking a constitutionally cognizable interest. (5) Whether the biennial limit on contributions to candidate committees is unconstitutionally too low.

3. Burt v. Titlow*, No. 12-414 (6th Cir., 680 F.3d 577; cert. granted Feb. 25, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioner; argued on Oct. 8, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Sixth Circuit failed to give appropriate deference to a Michigan state court under AEDPA in holding that defense counsel was constitutionally ineffective for allowing respondent to maintain his claim of innocence. (2) Whether a convicted defendant's subjective testimony that he would have accepted a plea but for ineffective assistance, is, standing alone, sufficient to demonstrate a reasonable probability that defendant would have accepted the plea. (3) Whether Lafler v. Cooper, 132 S. Ct. 1376 (2012), which expanded ineffective-assistance-of-counsel claims to include rejected plea offers, always requires a state trial court to resentence a defendant who shows a reasonable probability that he would have accepted a plea offer but for ineffective assistance, and to do so in such a way as to "remedy" the violation of the defendant's constitutional right.

4. United States v. Woods*, No. 12-562 (5th Cir., 471 F. App'x 320; cert. granted Mar. 25, 2013; argued on Oct. 9, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether Section 6662 of the Internal Revenue Code, which prescribes a penalty for an underpayment of federal income tax that is "attributable to" an overstatement of basis in property, applies to an underpayment resulting from a determination that a transaction lacks economic substance because the sole purpose of the transaction was to generate a tax loss by artificially inflating the taxpayer's basis in property. (2) Whether the district court had jurisdiction in this case under 26 U.S.C. § 6226 to consider the substantial valuation misstatement penalty.

5. Atlantic Marine Construction Co. v. United States District Court for the Western District of Texas*, No. 12-929 (5th Cir., 701 F.3d 736; cert. granted Apr. 1, 2013; argued on Oct. 9, 2013). Whether the Court's decision in Stewart Organization, Inc. v. Ricoh Corp., 487 U.S. 22 (1988), changed the standard for enforcement of forum-selection clauses that designate an alternative federal forum, limiting review of such clauses to a discretionary, balancing-of-conveniences analysis under 28 U.S.C. § 1404(a), and (2) If so, whether district courts should allocate the burdens of proof among parties seeking to enforce or to avoid a forum-selection clause.

6. Daimler AG v. Bauman*, No. 11-965 (9th Cir., 644 F.3d 909; cert. granted Apr. 22, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioner; argued on Oct. 15, 2013). Whether it violates due process for a court to exercise general personal jurisdiction over a foreign corporation based solely on the fact that an indirect corporate subsidiary performs services on behalf of the defendant in the forum State.

7. Heimeshoff v. Hartford Life Insurance*, No. 12-729 (2d Cir., 496 F. App'x 129; cert. granted Apr. 15, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioner; argued on Oct. 15, 2013). The Question Presented is when a statute of limitations should accrue for judicial review of a disability adverse benefit determination under the Employee Retirement Income Security Act ("ERISA"), 29 U.S.C. § 1002, et seq.

8. Schuette v. Coalition to Defend Affirmative Action*, No. 12-682 (6th Cir. 652 F.3d 607; cert. granted Mar. 25, 2013; argued on Oct. 15, 2013). Whether a state violates the Equal Protection Clause by amending its constitution to prohibit race- and sex-based discrimination or preferential treatment in public-university admissions decisions.

9. Kansas v. Cheever*, No. 12-609 (Kan., 284 P.3d 1007; cert. granted Feb. 25, 2013; limited to Question 1; SG as amicus, supporting petitioner; argued on Oct. 16, 2013). When a criminal defendant affirmatively introduces expert testimony that he lacked the requisite mental state to commit capital murder of a law enforcement officer due to the alleged temporary and long-term effects of the defendant's methamphetamine use, does the State violate the defendant's Fifth Amendment privilege against self-incrimination by rebutting the defendant's mental state defense with evidence from a court-ordered mental evaluation of the defendant?

10. Kaley v. United States*, No. 12-463 (11th Cir., 677 F.3d 1316; cert. granted Mar. 18, 2013; argued on Oct. 16, 2013). When a post-indictment, ex parte restraining order freezes assets needed by a criminal defendant to retain counsel of choice, do the Fifth and Sixth Amendments require a pretrial, adversarial hearing at which the defendant may challenge the evidentiary support and legal theory of the underlying charges?

11. Walden v. Fiore*, No. 12-574 (9th Cir., 688 F.3d 558; cert. granted Mar. 4, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioner; argument scheduled for Nov. 4, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether due process permits a court to exercise personal jurisdiction over a defendant whose sole "contact" with the forum State is his knowledge that the plaintiff has connections to that State. (2) Whether the judicial district where the plaintiff suffered injury is a district "in which a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claim occurred" for purposes of establishing venue under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2) even if the defendant's alleged acts and omissions all occurred in another district.

12. Sandifer v. United States Steel Corp.*, No. 12-417 (7th Cir., 678 F.3d 590; cert. granted Feb. 19, 2013; limited to Question 1; SG as amicus, supporting respondent; argument scheduled for Nov. 4, 2013). Under the Fair Labor Standards Act, the period of time during which a covered employee must be paid begins when the worker engages in a principal activity. Under 29 U.S.C. § 203(o) of the Act, however, an employer need not compensate worker for time spent "changing clothes" if that time is expressly excluded from compensable time under a bona fide collective bargaining agreement applicable to that worker. Does donning and doffing safety gear constitute "changing clothes" within the meaning of § 203(o)?

13. Bond v. United States*, No. 12-158 (3d Cir., 681 F.3d 149; cert. granted Jan. 18, 2013; argument scheduled for Nov. 5, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Constitution's structural limits on federal authority impose any constraints on the scope of Congress' authority to enact legislation to implement a valid treaty, at least in circumstances where the federal statute, as applied, goes far beyond the scope of the treaty, intrudes on traditional state prerogatives, and is concededly unnecessary to satisfy the Government's treaty obligations? (2) Can the provisions of the Chemical Weapons Convention Implementation Act, 18 U.S.C. § 229, be interpreted not to reach ordinary poisoning cases, which have been handled by state and local authorities since the Framing, in order to avoid the difficult constitutional questions involving the scope of and continuing validity of the Court's decision in Missouri v. Holland?

14. Sprint Communications Co. v. Jacobs*, No. 12-815 (8th Cir., 690 F.3d 864; cert. granted Apr. 15, 2013; argument scheduled for Nov. 5, 2013). Whether the Eighth Circuit erred by concluding, in conflict with decisions of nine other circuits and this Court, that Younger abstention is warranted not only when there is a related state proceeding that is "coercive" but also when there is a related state proceeding that is "remedial."

15. Medtronic Inc. v. Boston Scientific Corp.*, No. 12-1128 (Fed. Cir., 695 F.3d 1266; cert. granted May 20, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioner; argument scheduled for Nov. 5, 2013). Whether, in a declaratory judgment action brought by a licensee under MedImmune, Inc. v. Genentech, Inc., the licensee has the burden to prove that its products do not infringe the patent, or whether (as is the case in all other patent litigation, including other declaratory judgment actions), the patentee must prove infringement.

Whether a state's parens patriae action is removable as a "mass action" under the Class Action Fairness Act when the state is the sole plaintiff, the claims arise under state law, and the state attorney general possesses statutory and common-law authority to assert all claims in the complaint.

18. Rosemond v. United States*, No. 12-895 (10th Cir., 695 F.3d 1151; cert. granted May 28, 2013; argument scheduled for Nov. 12, 2013). Whether the offense of aiding and abetting the use of a firearm during and in relation to a crime of violence or drug trafficking crime, in violation of 18 U.S.C. §§ 924(c)(1)(A) and 2, requires proof of (i) intentional facilitation or encouragement of the use of the firearm, as held by the First, Second, Third, Fifth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, and Eleventh Circuits, or (ii) simple knowledge that the principal used a firearm during a crime of violence or drug trafficking crime in which the defendant also participated, as held by the Sixth, Tenth, and District of Columbia Circuits.

19. Burrage v. United States*, No. 12-7515 (8th Cir., 687 F.3d 1015; cert. granted Apr. 29, 2013; argument scheduled for Nov. 12, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the crime of distribution of drugs causing death under 21 U.S.C. § 841 is a strict liability crime, without a foreseeability or proximate cause requirement. (2) Whether a person can be convicted for distribution of heroin causing death using jury instructions which allow a conviction when the heroin that was distributed "contributed to," death by "mixed drug intoxication," but was not the sole cause of death of a person.

20. Lawson v. FMR, LLC*, No. 12-3 (1st Cir., 670 F.3d 61; CVSG Oct. 9, 2012; cert. opposed Apr. 9, 2013; cert. granted May 20, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting petitioners; argument scheduled for Nov. 12, 2013). Whether an employee of a privately held contractor or subcontractor of a public company is protected from retaliation by Section 806 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, 18 U.S.C. § 1514A.

Whether an employer and union may violate Section 302 of the Labor-Management Relations Act, 29 U.S.C. § 186, by entering into an agreement under which the employer exercises its freedom of speech by promising to remain neutral to union organizing, its property rights by granting union representatives limited access to the employer's property and employees, and its freedom of contract by obtaining the union's promise to forego its rights to picket, boycott, or otherwise put pressure on the employer's business.

Whether, under Georgia v. Randolph, a defendant must be personally present and objecting when police officers ask a co-tenant for consent to conduct a warrantless search or whether a defendant's previously stated objection, while physically present, to a warrantless search is a continuing assertion of Fourth Amendment rights which cannot be overridden by a co-tenant.

23. Michigan v. Bay Mills Indian Community*, No. 12-515 (6th Cir., 695 F.3d 406; CVSG Jan. 7, 2013; cert. opposed May 14, 2013; cert. granted June 24, 2013; argument scheduled for Dec. 2, 2013). The Indian Gaming Regulatory Act, 25 U.S.C. § 2701 et seq. ("IGRA"), authorizes an Indian tribe to conduct class III gaming under limited circumstances and only on "Indian lands." 25 U.S.C. § 2710(d)(1). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether a federal court has jurisdiction to enjoin activity that violates the IGRA but takes place outside of Indian lands; and (2) whether tribal sovereign immunity bars a state from suing in federal court to enjoin a tribe from violating the IGRA outside of Indian lands.

Whether the Ninth Circuit erred in holding that respondent's implied covenant of good faith and fair dealing was not preempted under the Airline Deregulation Act because such claims are categorically unrelated to a price, route, or service, notwithstanding that respondent's claim arises out of a frequent-flyer program and manifestly enlarged the terms of the parties' undertakings, which allowed termination in Northwest's sole discretion.

26. Lexmark International, Inc. v. Static Control Components, Inc.*, No. 12-873 (6th Cir., 697 F.3d 387; cert. granted June 3, 2013; argument scheduled for Dec. 3, 2013). Whether a district court's decision on the merits that leaves unresolved a request for contractual attorney's fees is a "final decision" under 28 U.S.C. § 1291, which provides that courts of appeals have jurisdiction of appeals from final decisions of the district court.

31. EPA v. EME Homer City*, No. 12-1182 (D.C. Cir., 696 F.3d 7; cert. granted June 24, 2013; consolidated with *American Lung Association v. EME Homer

Gibson Dunn
Counsel for Amicus Curiae Current and Former Members of Congress

City*, No. 12-1183; argument scheduled for Dec. 10, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the court of appeals lacked jurisdiction to consider the challenges to the Clean Air Act on which it granted relief. (2) Whether states are excused from adopting state implementation plans prohibiting emissions that "contribute significantly" to air pollution problems in other states until after the EPA has adopted a rule quantifying each state's inter-state pollution obligations. (3) Whether the EPA permissibly interpreted the statutory term "contribute significantly" so as to define each upwind state's "significant" interstate air pollution contributions in light of the cost-effective emission reductions it can make to improve air quality in polluted downwind areas, or whether the Act instead unambiguously requires the EPA to consider only each upwind state's physically proportionate responsibility for each downwind air quality problem.

32. American Lung Ass'n v. EME Homer City*, No. 12-1183 (D.C. Cir., 696 F.3d 7; cert. granted June 24, 2013; consolidated with EPA v. EME Homer City, No. 12-1182; argument scheduled for Dec. 10, 2013). Limited to the Questions Presented in No. 12-1182.

The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether Section 1153(h)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act ("INA")—which provides rules for determining whether particular aliens qualify as "children" so that they can obtain visas or adjustments of their immigration status as derivative beneficiaries of sponsored family member immigrants (also known as "primary beneficiaries")—unambiguously grants relief to all aliens who qualify as "child" derivative beneficiaries at the time a visa petition is filed but age out of qualification by the time the visa becomes available to the primary beneficiary. (2) Whether the Board of Immigration Appeals reasonably interpreted Section 1153(h)(3) of the INA.

34. Lozano v. Alvarez*, No. 12-820 (2d Cir., 697 F.3d 41; CVSG Mar. 18, 2013; cert. supported May 24, 2013; cert. granted June 24, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting respondent; argument scheduled for Dec. 11, 2013). Article 12 of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction provides that an abducted child must be returned to the left-behind parent if that parent's petition for the child's return is filed within one year of the abduction. The question presented is whether a district court considering a petition under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction for the return of an abducted child may equitably toll the running of the one-year filing period when the abducting parent has concealed the whereabouts of the child from the left-behind parent.

35. White v. Woodall*, No. 12-794 (6th Cir., 685 F.3d 574; cert. granted June 27, 2013; argument scheduled for Dec. 11, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Sixth Circuit violated 28 U.S.C. § 2254(d)(1) by granting habeas relief on the trial court's failure to provide a no-adverse-inference instruction even though the Supreme Court has not "clearly established" that such an instruction is required in a capital penalty phase when a non-testifying defendant has pled guilty to the crimes and aggravating circumstances. (2) Whether the Sixth Circuit violated the harmless error standard in Brecht v. Abrahamson, 507 U.S. 619 (1993), in ruling that the absence of a no-adverse-inference instruction was not harmless in spite of overwhelming evidence of guilt and in the face of a guilty pleas to the crimes and aggravators.

36. Law v. Siegel*, No. 12-5196 (9th Cir., 435 Fed. App'x 697; CVSG Dec. 3, 2012; cert. opposed May 14, 2013; cert. granted June 17, 2013; SG as amicus, supporting respondent). 37. McCullen v. Coakley*, No. 12-1168 (1st Cir., 708 F.3d 1; cert. granted June 24, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the First Circuit erred in upholding Massachusetts's selective exclusion law—which makes it a crime for speakers other than clinic "employees or agents . . . acting within the scope of their employment" to "enter or remain on a public way or sidewalk" within thirty-five feet of an entrance, exit, or driveway of "a reproductive health care facility"—under the First and Fourteenth Amendments, on its face and as applied to petitioners. (2) Whether, if Hill v. Colorado, 530 U.S. 703 (2000), permits enforcement of this law, Hill should be limited or overruled.

38. Exec. Benefits Ins. Agency v. Arkison*, No. 12-1200 (9th Cir., 702 F.3d 553; cert. granted June 24, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether Article III permits the exercise of the judicial power of the United States by bankruptcy courts on the basis of litigant consent, and, if so, whether "implied consent" based on a litigant's conduct, where the statutory scheme provides the litigant no notice that its consent is required, is sufficient to satisfy Article III. (2) Whether a bankruptcy judge may submit proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law for de novo review by a district court in a "core" proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b).

39. NLRB v. Noel Canning*, No. 12-1281 (D.C. Cir., 705 F.3d 490; cert. granted June 24, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the President's recess-appointment power may be exercised during a recess that occurs within a session of the Senate, or is instead limited to recesses that occur between enumerated sessions of the Senate. (2) Whether the President's recess-appointment power may be exercised to fill vacancies that exist during a recess, or is instead limited to vacancies that first arose during that recess. (3) Whether the President's recess-appointment power may be exercised when the Senate is convening every three days in pro forma sessions.

40. Paroline v. United States*, No. 12-8561 (5th Cir., 701 F.3d 749; cert. granted June 27, 2013). What, if any, causal relationship or nexus between the

Whether the Federal Circuit's promulgation of a rigid and exclusive two-part test for determining whether a case is "exceptional" under 35 U.S.C. § 285 improperly appropriates a district court's discretionary authority to award attorney fees to prevailing accused infringers in contravention of statutory intent and this Court's precedent, thereby raising the standard for accused infringers (but not patentees) to recoup fees and encouraging patent plaintiffs to bring spurious patent cases to cause competitive harm or coerce unwarranted settlements from defendants.

Cases Determined Without Argument

1. Stanton v. Sims*, No. 11-1184 (9th Cir., 706 F.3d 954; Reversed and remanded Nov. 4, 2013). Per Curiam. The Ninth Circuit had reversed a grant of qualified immunity in a 42 U.S.C. § 1983 case after concluding that it was clearly established law that an officer with probable cause to arrest a suspect for a misdemeanor may not enter a home without a warrant while in hot pursuit of that suspect. The Court reversed the Ninth Circuit on the ground that the law was not clearly established. Regarding the state of the law at the time the officer made his warrantless entry, the Court observed: "Two opinions of this Court [Welsh v. Wisconsin, 466 U.S. 740 (1984) and United States v. Santana, 427 U.S. 38 (1976)] were equivocal on the lawfulness of his entry; two opinions of the State Court of Appeal affirmatively authorized that entry; the most relevant opinion of the Ninth Circuit was readily distinguishable; two Federal District Courts in the Ninth Circuit had granted qualified immunity in the wake of that opinion; and the federal and state courts of last resort around the Nation were sharply divided."

The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Sixth Circuit erred by holding that respondents were not required to plausibly allege in their complaint that the fiduciaries of an employee stock ownership plan abused their discretion by remaining invested in employer stock, in order to overcome the presumption that their decision to invest in employer stock was reasonable, as required by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, 29 U.S.C. §§ 1101 et seq. ("ERISA"), and every other circuit to address the issue. 9. Kellogg Brown& Root v. United States, ex rel. Carter*, No. 12-1497 (4th Cir., 710 F.3d 171; CVSG Oct. 7, 2013). The Questions Presented are: (1) Whether the Wartime Suspension of Limitations Act—a criminal code provision that tolls the statute of limitations for "any offense" involving fraud against the government "[w]hen the United States is at war," 18 U.S.C. § 3287, and which this Court has instructed must be "narrowly construed" in favor of repose—applies to claims of civil fraud brought by private relators, and is triggered without a formal declaration of war, in a manner that leads to indefinite tolling. (2) Whether, contrary to the conclusion of numerous courts, the False Claims Act's so-called "first-to-file" bar, 31 U.S.C. § 3730(b)(5)—which creates a race to the courthouse to reward relators who promptly disclose fraud against the government, while prohibiting repetitive, parasitic claims—functions as a "one-case-at-a-time" rule allowing an infinite

(2) Whether a discretionary clause in an ERISA plan mandating that an abuse-of-discretion standard of judicial review be applied to a Section 502(a)(1)(B) denial-of-benefits claim is enforceable when the clause was never disclosed to the participant in any plan document, as the Second Circuit held here, or whether the Plan must give participants and beneficiaries clear notice of such a clause, as the Seventh Circuit has required.
